

WEEKLY NEWS QUIZ

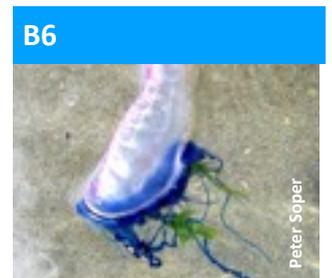

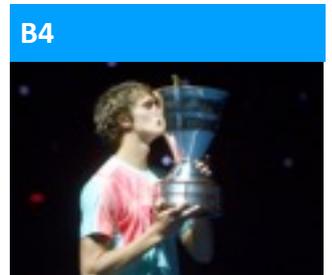

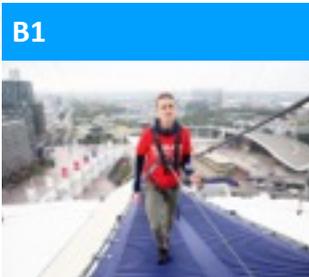

IN THE KNOW

PART A: WORDS

- A1 What is 'antimicrobial resistance'?
- A2 Why do wildlife experts call the warmer months of the year in Australia 'trauma season' for animals?
- A3 Which team has won the Women's Super League title for the first time, after a home victory against Chelsea?
- A4 Last weekend marked the first time a Scot has scored in the Bundesliga (the German football league) since 1999. What's his name and how old is he?
- A5 Why was a woman, who rang the police about a car accident, jokingly told that the police would respond in, "about six hours"?
- A6 Which political party conference does Junior Journalist Jade Calder report back from for 'First News'?
- A7 What caused 1.5m Puerto Ricans to be plunged into darkness last week?
- A8 What are cosmetics companies not allowed to test their make-up products on, according to the European Court of Justice?
- A9 What has French President François Hollande called to be: "completely definitively dismantled"?
- A10 TUEs (therapeutic use exemptions) are in the news because a TUE is a form (like a doctor's note) which allows athletes to take banned drugs for special medical reasons. Which British cyclist was given TUEs, so he could take a medication for his asthma?

PART B: PICTURES

What news do these pictures tell us this week?

PART C: PLACE

Where in the world has a surfing teenager been attacked by a shark?

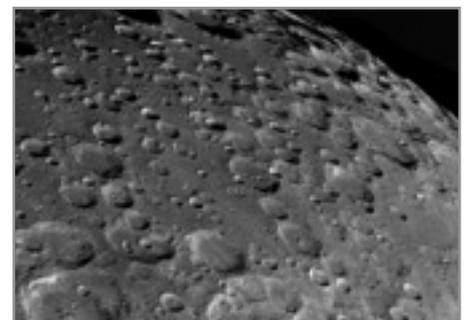

PART D: PERSON

Who is this person and why is she in the news this week?

PART E: OBJECT

What is this object and why is it in the news?

PART F: STATISTICS

What news do these numbers tell us this week?

F1 Every 15 minutes

F2 1.49 since 1994

F3 115 tonnes of good food

F4 22 children in Cambodia

F5 Over 94% attendance

F6 £200 for £5

? WEEKLY NEWS QUIZ

L3 Part A: Words - Answers

- A1 This is when some of the medicines that are used to kill bacteria and make us better no longer working because the bacteria in infections become resistant to the drugs. Scientists say this is partly due to doctors giving out too many antibiotics, so we should only take antibiotics when we really need them. 'Superbugs: Fighting Back', Big News, page 4
- A2 August to February is trauma season because it's a more hazardous time for animals; many baby animals are born during this time in Australia and a lot of wildlife is on the move (so comes into contact with humans and traffic). 'Koala Needs Cuddles', Animal News, page 18
- A3 Manchester City, 'Victory!', Sport, page 28
- A4 It's 19-year-old Oliver Burke. Sport In Numbers, Sport, page 28
- A5 Because she accidentally rung the Barnstaple police department in Massachusetts in the USA, instead of her local Barnstaple police station in Devon in the UK! 'Wrong number', Crazy But True, page 20
- A6 She went to the Labour conference, with Youthforia North West – an organisation which gives a voice to young people in the region. 'The Labour Conference', Your News, page 27
- A7 A huge fire at a power plant caused the electricity power cut. 6. 'Blackout', Quick News, page 2
- A8 Animals, 1. 'Animal Testing', Quick News, page 2
- A9 The so-called 'Jungle' migrant camp in Calais, 5. 'Jungle Camp', Quick News, page 2
- A10 Sir Bradley Wiggins, 'Hack Attack', Sport, page 28

PART B – The Pictures

- B1 Double Olympic medallist Major Heather Stanning and 15 veterans walked across the roof of London's O2 in aid of the Royal British Legion Industries (RBLI). 9. 'Don't Look Down', page 2
- B2 Oxford University has come top of the Times Higher Education world university rankings. 3. 'Top Uni', Quick News, page 2
- B3 Charlotte is a young carer for her mum, and is supported by the Carers Trust. Find out more in her 'Young Carer' article, Your News, page 27
- B4 19-year-old tennis player Alexander Zverev has won the ATP Championship title (and is the first teenage winner since 2008!). Sport In Numbers, Sport, page 28
- B5 This photo (by Yu Jun of China) is called 'Baily's Beads', and is made up of stacked images of the sun's eclipse. It won first place in the 2016 Insight Astronomy Photographer Of The Year Competition. 'Astronomy Photos Of 2016', Science, page 8
- B6 Portuguese Men-Of-War (jellyfish-like stinging sea creatures) have washed up on beaches in Cornwall and the Scilly Isles. 7. 'Scary Stingers', Quick News, page 2

Part C: Places

Where in the world has a surfing teenager been attacked by a shark? Australia, 18. 'Shark Attack', Quick News, page 2

Part D: Person

Who is this person and why is she in the news this week? It's Virginia Raggi, the Mayor of Rome. She's in the news for saying that the Italian capital is still paying off its debts from when it hosted the 1960 Olympic Games! 'No-lympics', Italy, World News, page 7

Part E: Object

What is this object and why is it in the news? It's a view of our moon. It's a photo called 'From Maurolycus to Moretus', by Jordi Delpeix Borrell of Spain, and is one of the winners in the 2016 Insight Astronomy Photographer Of The Year Competition. 'Astronomy Photos Of 2016', Science, page 8

Part F: Statistics

What news do these numbers tell us this week?

- F1 Every 15 minutes – an elephant is killed, and this could mean extinction in 10 years. 'Elephant Emergency', Big News, page 3
- F2 1.49m since 1994 – that's how far Australia has moved – so maps will need to be updated! Bad Week For, Big News, page 3
- F3 115 tonnes of good food – that's at least how much UK supermarkets throw away every year. 'Junk food supermarkets', Leeds, Home News, page 5
- F4 22 children in Cambodia – that's the number 'First News' readers have helped in the Cambodia 500 appeal. 'Changing Lives In Cambodia', Special report, page 10
- F5 Over 94% attendance – that's the percentage for attending school which pupils in Derbyshire will have to reach in order to be able to take a family holiday in term time. 'Term time holidays', Derbyshire, Home News, page 6
- F6 £200 for a £5 – that is how much people are selling the new polymer £5 notes for on eBay. News In Numbers, Home News, page 5