

FirstNews EDUCATION

ANYWHERE
ACCESS
FOR ALL

DIGITAL NEWSPAPER

TEACHING IDEAS

1. Use article clippings to incorporate news into your existing classroom resources
2. Delve into the searchable archive when creating lesson plans to find relevant non-fiction sources
3. Perfect for news and debate clubs
4. Use 'Special Reports' to encourage informed discussions and broaden your students' vocabulary

“ We use First News Digital Edition as a reading tool for children. They are encouraged to access this before school and occasionally during break times when inside. ”

Mark Jones, Assistant Headteacher,
St Christopher's School, Bahrain

EASY
ACCESS

BOOST
ENGAGEMENT

WHAT'S INCLUDED

- Unlimited access for staff and pupils
- 28 pages, 52 weeks a year
- Extract individual articles or full pages with the clipping tool
- Searchable archive of all past editions
- Additional accessibility tools via the app

“ For us, First News is simply invaluable. It's a safe, trusted source of news and non-fiction; it builds children as speakers, writers and thinkers – and helps teachers tackle tricky topics with confidence. ”

Tara Harmer, Deputy Head, Heronway Primary School

START YOUR OWN NEWS CLUB

Start your own, FREE, First News FYI News Club: get weekly resources; access to FYI: For Your Information, the BAFTA award-winning weekly news show from Sky Kids; and amazing opportunities for pupils to conduct interviews, attend events and have their work published as First News junior reporters!

Visit www.schools.firstnews.co.uk to view our full range of print and digital resources.
Or, speak to our team by emailing us at schools@firstnews.co.uk or calling 01371 851 898