

Part A: Words

- A1 Why are F-35 and Lightning in the news?
- A2 Who should face justice for their violent actions against the Rohingya people in Myanmar, according to a new United Nations report?
- A3 Which artist, who originally managed to put a fake piece of cave art called 'Peckham Rock' on show in the British Museum, has now loaned the artwork back to the museum?!
- A4 What have researchers from the Brazilian agency FUNAI been studying for years, and now have new footage of?
- A5 What have NICE (the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence) and Public Health England recommended to try to help get through a cold or cough, instead of antibiotics from the doctor?
- A6 What is the Bahama nuthatch, and why is it in the news?
- A7 Why has Scotts Fish And Chips takeaway and restaurant in York translated its menu into Mandarin and Cantonese?
- A8 How much alcohol is safe to drink, according to a new global study published in the medical journal, The Lancet?
- A9 A tourist was faced with a fine, when he took some pebbles from a Cornish beach. How much was the fine?
- A10 What has a Which? investigation of different brands of vanilla ice cream found?

Part B: Pictures What news do these pictures tell us?

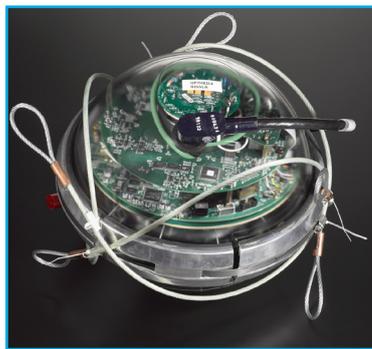

Part C: Person

Who is this person and why is she in the news this week?

Part D: Object

What is this object and why is it in the news?

Part E: Place

Where in the world did a tropical storm, called Hurricane Lane, hit last week?

Part F: Statistics What news do these numbers tell us this week?

F1 9 goals in 29 minutes	F2 Up by 0.5 percentage points from 66.4 to 66.9%
F3 Up by 5%; an extra £7.15 a month	F4 6-2, 6-4
F5 184,000 tonnes and 337 metres long	F6 9.87 seconds

Teacher Answers

Part A: Words

- A1 They are two baby pigeons found on board the Royal Navy's new ship, HMS Queen Elizabeth. 'Feathered stowaways', Somerset, Home News, page 6
- A2 Six military leaders in Myanmar (part of the Myanmar government) and the Myanmar leader Aung San Suu Kyi. 'All Eyes On Myanmar', Big News, page 1
- A3 Banksy. 'Banksy on show', London, Home News, page 6
- A4 An uncontacted tribe. 'Tribe footage', Brazil, World News, page 8
- A5 Honey and over-the-counter remedies. Good week for ... 'Honey', Big News, page 3
- A6 It is a bird species, which has been rediscovered by two students from the University of East Anglia! '8 Rare Bird Found', Quick News, page 2
- A7 More than 100 tourists a week are coming to buy their fish and chips! 'Oh my cod!', York, Home News, page 6
- A8 None at all, due to the increased risk of cancer and other diseases from drinking any alcohol. '11 Alcohol Study', Quick News, page 2
- A9 £1,000. '7 Pebble Fine', Quick News, page 2
- A10 One in five vanilla ice creams in the research contained neither vanilla, cream nor fresh milk! 'Ice cream scandal!', Big News, page 4

Part B: Pictures

- B1 Spanish Formula 1 driver Fernando Alonso said that the 'halo' head protection, made compulsory this season, may have saved fellow competitor Charles Leclerc in their crash at the Belgian Grand Prix in Spa. 'Spa Smash', Sport, page 28
- B2 Artist Steve Bewsher uses a Costa coffee card, instead of a palette knife, to help create his artworks! 'Coffee Card Art', Crazy But True, page 19
- B3 Marc Mendoza, from Newham Youngbloods in East London, was selected to play in the Europe basketball team at the Jr. NBA World Championship in Florida, USA. 'Best Of The Best', Special Report, page 17
- B4 Bone fragments of a 13-year-old girl, born 90,000 years ago, have provided scientific evidence of a child who comes from two species of humans; her mother was a Neanderthal and her father was Denisovan. 'Girl's Parents Were Different Human Species', Science News, page 10
- B5 If scientists are able to breed Mexican corn (which fertilizes itself with nitrogen from the atmosphere) the benefits will be a cut in the cost of our food and a reduction in energy consumption and pollution. 'Corn Blimey!', Science News, page 10

B6 Three World Triathlon Series (WTS) gold medals have been won by Britain's Vicky Holland this season. Sport, page 28

Part C: Person

Who is this person, and why is she in the news this week? It's First Lieutenant Misa Matsushima, who has become Japan's first female fighter pilot. News In Pictures, page 5

Part D: Object

What is this object and why is it in the news? It's an IceCube neutrino detector, which has detected cosmic rays (high-energy particles) that were made in a galaxy almost four billion light years away. 'Cosmic Mystery', Science News, page 10

Part E: Place

Where in the world did tropical storm Hurricane Lane hit last week? Hawaii. 'Hurricane Lane', World News, page 8

Part F: Statistics

What news do these numbers tell us this week?

- F1 9 goals in 29 minutes – were scored by China's Wang Shanshan, as her country's football team beat Tajikistan 16-0 in the Asian Games. Sport In Numbers, Sport, page 28
- F2 Up by 0.5 percentage points from 66.4 to 66.9% – those are the 2018 GCSE examination figures for the proportion of entries scoring a C or above, or a 4 in the new system. 'GCSE results rise', UK, Home News, page 6
- F3 Up by 5%; an extra £7.15 a month – is how much food prices are set to rise by, following crop failures due to this year's extreme weather. 'UK Food Prices Set To Soar', Big News, page 3
- F4 6-2, 6-4 – Tennis world number one Simona Halep lost in the first round of the US Open to world number 44, Kaia Kanepi. 'Number 1 Out', Sport, page 28
- F5 184,000 tonnes and 337 metres long – these are the figures for the AIDnova ship, the world's first cruise ship to be powered by liquified natural gas. News In Pictures, page 5
- F6 9.87 seconds – that's all it took for American sprinter Ronnie Baker to run the 110m at the Chorzów athletics meeting in Poland, breaking Usain Bolt's 9.98 seconds record. Sport In Numbers, Sport, page 28